WILSON VETOES REPUBLICAN PLAN FOR EARLY PEACE

Declares it Would "Stain" the Nation's Honor

BOTH SIDES DEADLOCKED

WASHINGTON, May 27.—President Wilson vetoed the peace resolution today and informed Congress he could not become a party to the peace program framed by republican leaders of the senate and house because he considered it would put on "ineffacable stain" upon the nation's honor.

To establish technical peace by such a method, the president said in his veto message, would be to "effect a complete surrender of the rights of the United States so far as Germany is concerned" and to relinquish all the high purposes which led the nation into war and which were embodied in the rejected treaty of Versailles.

The president's act apparently brought to another and final deadlock the efforts of the president's administration and congress to agree upon a peace program. Republican leaders conceded they had no chance to pass the resolution over the executive's veto, though an attempt will be made in the house tomorrow, and on both sides it was predicted that the issues of the treaty controversy would have to be fought out in the political campaign with democrats and republicans blaming each other for the failure to consummate a state of peace.

In his message the president did not indicate whether he might again submit the treaty to the senate for ratification but he said the resolution raised again the question of whether the United States cared to draw apart from the rest of the world or to join with other nations in attaining the ends to which the treaty was framed.

The veto had been expected by the republican leaders and they had made plans to close the incident promptly by a record vote on reassage of the resolution. The message went first to the house where its reading was greeted with cheers by the democrats and derision by republicans. Without discussion it was agreed to take a vote at noon tomorrow. The general prediction on the republican side was that the resolution would fall short by only a few votes of the two thirds necessary to repass it. In the senate, however, it was conceded that the prospect was altogether hopeless, the democrats standing almost solidly with the president.

For the most part, leaders refrained from comment on the president's action. The general tenor of the talk on the republican side, however, was that the president and not congress should bear the responsibility if the nation remained technically at war, while among the democrats it was said that the nation would hold the republican senate to account for failure to ratify the treaty.

Representatives Fess of Ohio, chairman of the republican congressional committee, declared in a formal statement that the president alone was to blame and that the people were with the republican leaders in their attempt to end, through the resolution "an intolerable situation".

Wilson's Veto Message

The president's message follows:

To the House of Representatives:

"I return herewith, without my signature, House joint resolution 327, intended to repeal the joint resolution of April 6, 1917, declaring a state of war to exist between the United States and Germany, and the joint resolution of Dec. 7, 1917, declaring a state of war to exist between the United States and the Austro-hungarian government, and to declare a state of peace. I have not felt at liberty to sign this joint resolution because I cannot bring myself to become party to an action which would place an effacable stain upon the gallantry and honor of the United States. The resolution seeks to establish peace with the German empire without exacting from the German government any action by way of setting right the definite wrongs which it did to the peoples whom it attacked and whom we professed it our purpose to assist when we entered the war. Have we sacrificed the lives of more than 100,000 Americans and ruined the lives of thousands of others and brought upon thousands of American families an unhappiness that can never end for purposes for which we do not now care to state or care to take further steps to attain? The attainment of these purposes is provided for in the treaty of Versailles by terms deemed adequate by the leading statesmen and experts of all the great peoples who were associated in the war against Germany. Do we now not care to join in the effort to secure them?

SIMS BEGINS EFFORTS TO SCUTTLE DEFENSE OF NAVAL SECRETARY

In Rebuttal to His Recent Charges Before Senate Investigating Committee

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Rear Admiral Sims before the senate investigating committee today began efforts to scuttle Secretary Daniels' defense of the navy department's conduct of the war.

Testifying in rebuttal of Admiral Sims' charges, the admiral declared that navy department witnesses had revealed conditions in the navy "even more distressing than I could have imagined."

Admiral Sims declared that what Secretary Daniels had described as President Wilson's "bold and audacious" policy for the navy was commendable but the navy department, instead of following the presidential plan followed a "timid and hesitating course."

He characterized the president's advocacy of operations of the allied naval forces to bottle up the German submarines as "impracticable in view of certain technical difficulties with which, he said, the president was unfamiliar.

Referring to President Wilson's cablegram to him on July fourth 1917, asking for "independent recommendations' and expressing the belief that the British admiralty was "helpless almost to the point of panic", the admiral said he regarded the message as confidential.

Secretary Daniels' presentation before the committee, Admiral Sims asserted, was remarkable" alike for its mistakes and misinterpretations and for its unestrained assaults upon my services during the war". He added that some mistakes were to be expected in Mr. Daniels testimony because it was impossible for any civilian to testify at so great length regarding a highly technical subject.

At one point in his tesimony the admiral estimated that investigation had cost "two or three hundred thousand dollars". He will continue his rebuttal tomorrow and Chairman Hale said the investigation probably would be closed Saturday.

FIRE DESTROYS PEORIA COLISEUM

PEORIA, Ill., May 27.—Fire believed to have been caused by defective electric wires early today destroyed the Peoria collisseum, scene of many notable state and national gathering. The entire building was filled with flames when the department arrived and the firemen were unable to save any portion of it, dideeting much of their attention to neighboring structures.

Several firemen barely escaped serious injury when the rear wall was blown out by an explosion of gasses accumulated in the building. Fire Marshal Schoch and one or two of his men were slightly hurt by flying bricks.

The building was erected in 1900 at a cost of about $70,000 and could not be duplicated today for three times that amount. The city carried $27,000 insurance on the building, fixtures and furniture.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Association of Commerce was called for this noon to take up the matter of erecting a new building.

FURTHER DETAILS OF WOOD CAMPAIGN BROUGHT TO LIGHT

Valuable Information Given Committee by Former Manager

SEN. HARDING'S FUND $113,109

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Senate investigation into pre-convention expenditures in behalf of presidential candidates today brought forth information as to plans to put W. G. McAdoo's name before the Democratic national convention and an assertion from John T. King, original maager of Major General Wood that Dan R. Hanna, of Cleveland, early in the general's campaign had promised "to go out and gather in $500,000."

In reply to questions Mr. King said he did not know whether the money was received. As to three presidential candidates whose expenditures the committee inspected for the first time, testimony was presented showing that $13,109 had been contributed for Senator Harding of Ohio; $68,375 for Governor Coolidge of Massachusetts, and $40,550 for Nicholas Murray Butler of New York, all Republicans.

Resuming its inquiry into the campaign of Attorney General Palmer, the committee finished its day with Former Federal Judge J. Harry Covington, national treasurer of the Palmer campaign, answering questions designed by the inquisitors to show connection of several of Palmer's supporters, as named on the contribution list previously produced, with the office of the alien property custodian, of which Mr. Palmer was the war time head.

To a question as to whether his activities in behalf of Mr. Palmer were occasioned by his quasi-governmental legal associations. Mr. Covington gave an unqualified negative. Only nine men on the contribution list, he said, "had any connection direct or indirect," with the administration of alien property."

Mr. King's testimony concerned the early organization of the Wood campaign its financing under his direction to the extent of $91,000 and his retirement in favor of William C. Proctor. He denied reports that the Wood campaign had been underwritten by a group of wealthy men who attended a dinner given by the late Henry C. Frick.

"A question of policy," Mr. King said, caused him to withdraw as General Wood's manager.

Harry M. Daugherty presented the Harding records. Carmi A. Thompson was the largest contributor shown, with $13,000, with Mr. Daugherty, who is Senator Harding's manager, second with $9,500, though citizens of Marion, the senator's home, were credited with $22,500 in the campaign account.

James F. Reynolds appeared for Governor Coolidge, whose friends, he declared, had insisted upon circulating nationally a Coolidge booklet, though the governor had ordered actual campaign work stopped. This expenditure was virtually the only one, Mr. Reynolds said.

Judge John F. Davies of New York appearing for Dr. Butler, explained that a limited group of men, five furnishing $5,000 a piece, had financed a letter and pamphlet circulation in behalf of the Columbia university president.

J. S. Darst, West Virginia, auditor, met statements of heavy expenditure by General Wood's campaign organization in that state by asserting that he had spent less than $6.500.

UNION CHIEF DECLARES RAIL MEN MUST HAVE PROMPT INCREASES

Says Delay Will Cause Complete Disruption of Entire Rail Industry

CHICAGO, May 27.—Railroad employes of the United States must be granted prompt wage increases regardless of cost to the carriers, or the entire railway industry will face complete disruption, W. N. Doak, vice-president of of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen declared today before the railway labor board, which is conducting hearings into the demands of the employes.

He declared that present wages were inadequate and cited instances of trainmen whose living expenses were greater than the wages they were receiving.

Mr. Doak said the railroad industry faced its "present crisis" because the "buck had been passed from one board to another" since the men made their demands about a year ago. The cost of living had increased in that time without wages being increased with the result that the men were rapidly losing patience and soon would reach the point where they would "no longer stand for present conditions," he said.

Representatives of the engineers and firemen, conductors, telegraphers, switchmen and signalmen also presented testimony in rebuttal to the brief offered by the roads. In each case the testimony was brief and designed to correct alleged inaccuracies in the roads' testimony.

SOLDIER RELIEF BILL ADVOCATES SEEK EARLY ACTION, SERVE NOTICE

Plan to Block all Legislation Until Measure is Brought Up for a Vote

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Advocates of the soldier relief bill served notice in the house today that beginning tomorrow they would seek to block all legislation until the measure is brought up for passage. Representative Mason, Republican, Illinois, made such an announcement and later Representative Murphy, Republican of Ohio, repeated it.

"We are tired of this confidence game," declared Mr. Mason, referring to the delay in bringing the bill before the house.

Representative Fordney, Republican, Michigan, in charge of the measure, said its passage might be attempted Saturday, but some other leaders thought that it migh tgo over unil next week.

The rules committee today ordered favorable report of a resolution suspending house rules for six days, beginning Saturday, the plan being to bring up the relief bill during that time.

Prolonged debate on the bill, though bitter at times, disclosed no open opposition to it. Mr. Mason, in answering affirmatively a question by Representative Henry T. Rainey, Democrat, Illinois, as to whether the former favored an eighty per cent war profits tax to finance the proposal, charged that B. M. Baruch "had stolen $50,000,00 of war profits on copper."

Denial was made by democratic members that they were solidly against the bonus proposal.

VOTE TO ABOLISH 42 SENATE COMMITTEES

WASHINGTON, May 27.—The senate voted today to abolish 42 standing committees and reduce membership of all others, effective in the next congress. The reform has been urged for years and the new committee slate was adopted virtually without discussion.

The senate's committees are reduced from 74 to 32, paring down chairmanships and employe patronage heretofore enjoyed by senators to that extent. Senator Knox, republican, Pennsylvania, said the plan would "cut out all of the committees which rarely if ever meet".

PROHIBITION WILL NOT BE MENTIONED AT G.O.P. MEETING

Party Leaders Declare Question Has Been Settled

WETS ARE IN THE MINORITY

CHICAGO, May 27.—Beer, light wines and prohibition will not be mentioned in the Republican National convention, if present plans of party leaders are carried out, it was learned today.

Directors of the party's policies have decided that the question has been settled, and neither a "wet" nor a "dry" plank nor endorsement of any modification of the present "bone dry" rule will be incorporated in the platform, according to Samuel A. Perkins, national committeeman from Washington.

The prohibition question and its possible effect on the forthcoming presidential campaign has been under consideration by party leaders for several months, it is known. The matter was discussed at national committee meetings here as far back as last January.

One member of the national committee, who is here, said today that the committeemen believed the "wets" to be in the minority, and that the country as a whole wanted prohibition.

National committeemen, who are gathering here for the opening of the hearing on contests Monday received with interest today the reports of Senator Hiram W. Johnson's speech at Concord, N. H., in which he denied he would "bolt" the convention if not nominated. The probable attitude of the senator in the event of the defeat in the convention has been the source of speculation for weeks along "presidential row" and his pronouncement on the subject was received with visible relief.

"I am glad to hear that," said A. T. Hert of Kentucky, chairman of the committee on arrangements. "I have thought all along that that would be Mr. Johnson's position."

Senator Johnson will enter the conventin with 109 instructed delegates, running second to Major General Wood, who has 153 votes pledged to him. Governor Frank O. Lowden is third in the list with 74 votes.

With approval today by the city building inspector of the temporary galleries, installed to add 1,000 extra seats to the normal capacity of the Coliseum, Charles R. Hall, superintendent of the building notifie the convention committee that he would have the hall ready to turn over to the Republicans late next week.

Special correspondents of many metropolitan newspapers were thrown into consternation today when it was announced by the Western Union Telegraph company that it would have no wires running into the convention hall.

Superintendent Hall notified the company that the building trades council had threatened to call out all workmen employed at the Coliseum if non-union telegraph companies attempted to place wires in the building. The Postal Telegraph company said it had not heard of the trouble and expected to install an office.

The union men have been trying to organize the elevator boys in the Western Union building here. The elevator boys, according to the company, already are unionized, as they belong to the Western Union Employes Association.

L. W. Henley, secretary of the convention committee, placed an order for a new gavel today and the historic mallet used in 1912 and 1916 will be discarded. "It has gone through two defeats," Mr. Henley commented, "and because of the association's connection with it I think we would better lay it aside and buy a less dangerous weapon."

There will be plenty of room in Chicago, at reasonable prices, to care for the 40,000 convention visitors, according to the information bureau of the association of commerce. First class hotels in the loop have 13,000 rooms available and outlying hotels 27,000. Scores of apartments, whose owners have listed them at fancy figures, are going begging. One owner of a nine-room house asked $12,000 for six days. There were no takers. The average price of 250 apartments listed was $450 for the week, but not more than a dozen have been rented.

Rooms are available in hotels and homes at an average price of $5 a day.

U. S. MANDATE OVER ARMENIA DECLINED BY SENATE COMMITTEE

President Wilson's Proposal Goes Down to Defeat before Foreign Body 11 to 4

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Declinations of an American mandate over Armenia was regarded by leaders of both parties in congress as a certain result of the adverse action taken today by the senate foreign relations committee.

In response to President Wilson's request for authority to assume for the United States a mandate over Armenia, the senate committee today by a vote of 11 to 4 reported a resolution declaring that "congress respectfully declines to grant to the executive the power" asked.

Solid republican support given the resolution in the committee is expected by leaders to continue in the senate. One democrat on the committee, Senator Shields, of Tennessee, also opposed the mandate. Of the four democrats who opposed the resolution—Senators Hitchcock, of Nebraska; Williams, of Mississippi; Smith, of Arizona and Pittman, of Nevada—only one, Mr. Williams, was said to favor the mandate. The other three democrats opposed the resolution on other grounds and were said to oppose the president's request on principle.

The resolution is to be brought before the senate for debate and disposal as soon as legislative matters permit, with little doubt entertained by either party as to its adoption.

The official announcement by Chairman Lodge, of the committee's action follows:

The committee on foreign relations having had under consideration the message of the President of the United States of May 24, 1920 report the following resolution with the recommendation that it be adopted:

"Resolved, by the senate (the house of representatives concurring) that the congress hereby respectfully declines to grant to the executive the power to accept a mandate over Armenia as requested in the message of the president, dated May 24, 1920".

BLAMES PUBLIC FOR HIGH SHOE PRICES

WASHINGTON, May 27—Fastitidous tastes of the public are in part responsible for present high shoe prices, William McAdoo Jr., of New York, vice president of the Central Leather Co., declared today before the senate committee investigating shoe prices. He denied that his company was making exorbitant profits but said ifs profits in 1919 were $13,288,481 compared with $4,876,923 in 1914.

Mr. McAdoo said that because of "a marked decline" in the demands of shoe manufacturers for leather, his company had reduced production from ten to twelve per cent during the past three weeks, but added that no further reductions were anticipated if transportation and financial conditions became more near normal.

The witness agreed with Senator McNary, republican, Oregon, that if leather dealers and others connected with the leather trade had been content to accept smaller profits, shoe prices would not be lower.

Schroeder, holder of the world's record airplane altitude flight, told members of the chamber of commerce whom he addressed here yesterday about the high altitude flight across the continent which he expects to make in a few months. "At an altitude of 30,000 to 35,000 feet", said Major Schroeder, "the high velocity anti-trade winds alone will carry us over 250 miles an hour and our engines will add more than a hundred miles an hour to that speed.

"These terrific winds of the upper air will make a morning spin from New York to Paris a common occurrence".

CONFEREES MAKE MANY CHANGES IN PENDING ARMY BILL

Most of Senate Proposals Eliminated from Measure

PROVIDES FOR ARMY OF 297,000

WASHINGTON, May 27.—The army reorganization bill emerged from conference today shorn of senate proposals for federaliaztion of the national guard, for a voluntary universal training system and for automatic revival of the wartime selective service act on declaration of a war emergency.

As agreed to, it provides for a peace time regular army of 297,000 officers and men, including the Philippine scouts; for continuation of the national guard substantially on the present basis, and for the organization of an enlisted reserve corps liable for fifteen days of training during a year, except in the case of war emergency.

The senate proposal to create the post of under-secretary of war to have charge of procedure of war supplies was accepting in substance by placing this duty on the assistant secretary at an increased salary of $10,000 a year. The ssistant secretary will function as a business mnager. The bill also creates within the department a permanent war council composed of the secretary, assistant secretary, the general of the army and the chief of staff.

Senate provisions reconstructing the general staff on French army lines and making separate branches of the air service, signal corps and chemical warfare section were retained, the air force to include 1,514 officers and 16,000 men commanded by a major general. For the line of the army 21 major generals, 46 brigadiers, 525 colonels, 674 lieutenant colonels, 2,245 majors and 4,490 captains are provided, chiefs of infantry, cavalry and field artillery to be major generals, and the Porto Rican infantry to be incorporated into the regular army.

Promotions will be from a single list under yearly classification, with provision for discharge of unfit officers. The summer training camp system is perpetuated to aid in developing reserve officers.

Direct representation of the national guard on the general staff was eliminated but provision was made for assignment of guard officers when needed by the department. Military rank for army nurses, the superintendent with rank of major also is provided.

The provisions for an enlisted corps for civilians concluded to divide the country geographically into corps areas, each to include a division of national guard or enlisted reserve corps troops with proper reserve officer assignments to constitute a tactical organization for administrative purposes.

Enlistments in the reserve would be for three years, except world war veterans, who would be accepted for one year.

ATTORNEYS WILL INCREASE FEES

Chicago, May 27.—A recommendation for an increase of 33 1-3 per cent in legal charges of members of the Illinois State Bar association has been adopted by the board of governors, according to the report of the secretary, R. A. Stephens, of Danville, made today at the opening session of its annual convention. Mr. Stephens also reported that the association was not on a sound financial base.

The secretary announced that rules of ethics for members will be placed in every court house in the state.

President Frederick A. Brown of Chicago in giving his annual address, urged exemption of only public officials and physicians from jury service and advocated the settlement of wage disputes in court and not by arbitration.

At any rate no one was surprised when President Wilson vetoed the Knox resolution providing for a declaration of peace between the United States and Austria-Hungary. Probably Senator Knox knew when he introduced the measure just what its fate would be.

THE POOR TAX PAYER.

The railroad workers want back pay amounting to a billion dollars; representatives of the Farmers National council have suggested that congress advance $40,000,000 for the development of livestock and farming interests. Then the railroad managers have asked for an advance of $500,000,000 to put roads in condition and buy equipment. There have been several well founded recommendations that another $500,000,000 should be advanced to certain struggling countries in Southern Europe.

If there are any other groups or interests that have special use for a few millions now is the time to apply, so that congress may take them into account when making up the budget for 1921.

Mayor Thompson may control the state Republican committee but if he makes a serious attempt to have downstate Republicans support his un-American platform he will strike the biggest snag of his political career.

THE ELUSIVE VILLA

Gen. Obregon in Mexico has issued a proclamation that Villa must be taken, dead or alive, and several companies of soldiers are said to be in search of the bandit.

"Get Villa" was the slogan of the U. S. government several years ago, but the outlaw chief was pursued into certain mountain fastnesses. According to reports he was killed many times but according to fact he still flourishes and is likely to do so unless some of his own forces turn against him.

DECATUR HAS A BETTER WAY

In Decatur, Cope & Son have been awarded the contract for the construction of the big reservoir, which may cost $750,000 and cannot cost more than $975,000. Contract terms are such that at the lesser price the firm will have the larger percent of profit.

This system is quite an improvement over the government's popular war time policy of "cost plus." By that plan the more the contractor made the work cost the greater was his profit. The temptation was toward extravagance instead of economy.

IT'S TIME TO BE DEFINITE

The completion of the street car company's part of the paving on East State street gives rise to the hope that the year may see the whole street again in passable condition. The city council is using every effort to get Contractor Bretz to finish the job. Certainly the time is at hand for this contractor to do one of two things—pave the street or notify the city that he has no intention of doing so.

THE PEOPLE'S COLLEGE

Today ninety pupils will receive diplomas from the Jacksonville high school and 126 will be given certificates showing that they are ready to enter upon high school work next fall. A consideration of these figures impresses again how greatly high school facilities are needed. A lot of money is being spent on the Jacksonville school building, but it is the people's money for the "people's college."

GET INTO THE OLD PARTIES.

"The only way to get anything in this country is from inside the parties." This dictum from the pen of Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, is quoted in the Kay Forum by Mrs. John Glover South, who adds:

"That is why women must choose. If they are to count at all, they must do so as voters working within organizations. These parties exist. They have always existed. The very constitution of the United States was framed on the supposition of political parties brought together on the basis of general principle, and organized for the promotion of their candidates. To remain outside is to be ineffectual. Some persons today, impatient with the too long standing wrongs of society, feel that political parties are outworn, obsolete.

"They offer no substitute. Unorganized, their well meaning efforts fail. The only way to accomplish anything today is through organization. The two chief parties afford that organization with ample opportunity for experiment from within, for idealism, for a good fight. The minority parties too, have definite opportunities. If for no other reason, however, the two old parties, because they have the best chance of success in the administration of affairs, appeal most largely to those hoping for immediate action, modification without revolution, renascence from within the established system.

Rippling Rhymes
By Walt Mason

The Ony Way.

I'm wearing my old raiment, the duds of bygone years, and so I make no payment to clothing profiteers. I've pawned my old tin Lizzie, that burned up costly gas, and now on foot I'm busy—you've doubtless seen me pass. In spite of advertising that profiteers receive, the prices keep on rising, and make the victims grieve. In spite of threats of trouble that in the prints appear, the sharpers try to double the profits of last year. If we depend on statesmen to make the robbers bleed, or on official skatesmen, ours is a broken reed. We'll see the robbers flying, defeated, o'er the plain, if we will cut out buying the needless things and vain. So long as we are spending like drunken men and daft, there cannot be an ending to carnivals of graft. The graft's beyond all pardon, it's worse than a disease but I have got a garden that's full of beans and peas. I'm buying dark brown liver, instead of sirloins fine; and so I shed no river of tears from eyes of mine.

WOMEN ADOPT MEN'S CLOTHES, GRAB THE VOTE, AND NOW THEY COPY MEN'S UNDERWEAR

Eve is credited with being the originator of feminine fashions, and since she designed her first garment her descendants have been raking their brains to make woman's attire that would prove attractive, modest and comfortable.

As Eve herself was made from one of Adam's ribs, the women of the present day seem to be following up the idea of taking what they can from the men, although it still must be as a side issue, and in matters of dress are adopting things that the Adams of the present day have claimed as their own. High stiff collars are taking the place of the once soft neckband edged with a dainty frill of lace. Walking canes are carried in place of parasols and sailor straw hats; heavy woolen stockings and middy blouses have appeared instead of the poke bonnets, silk hosiery and tightly buttoned bodices of former times.

As things began to be different the minute Eve was left to herself in the garden, so things began to be different here when the Modern Eves were left alone and the men went to war. Yeomanettes appeared in costumes as much like the men's as they could be made, and likewise the motor corps drivers who could not be hampered with such things as long skirts, were seen driving about in khaki coats, knee skirts, as well as knee boots and wearing Sam Brown belts.

The soldiers realized at once upon their return that their sisters had copped many of the things they thought belonged rightfully to them, including the vote, but when they glanced into window and saw an elaborate display of Eiffel Maid underwear for women, buttonless, comfortable beautifully trimmed, made of fine materials and exactly like the athletic underwear they had themselves been wearing for years, they naturally were astonished. Of course this display did not come as a shock to them, for while awaiting demobilization in New York they had seen similar displays, for the new idea presented by the makers of Eiffel Maid underwear has scored a big hit in the east, with all the fashionable women flocking to the stores handling it, for they realize that to be without this latest kind of underwear is to be out of date.

ADAMS & REID'S

East State Street

CHILDREN WRITE ABOUT STREET TRAFFIC

Unique Letter to Parents Recites Some of the Dangers That Are Ever Present.

As an aid to a better understanding of the traffic ordinance and in the hope of impressing upon both children and their parents the care which must be used in crossing streets, the following letter will be distributed today among all the school children of Jacksonville.

They are expected to take the letters to their parents for reading in the home circle. One or more of the children whose names are attached to the letter have had narrow escapes from serious injury, so the letter has a personal touch.

A Letter to Parents.

May 20, 1920.

Dear Mother and Father:

I am handing this letter to you for the purpose of reminding you to help me observe the Safety First Rules (city ordinances) of our city.

Do you know that last year three little girls and several boys who made it a practice to play in the street and run back and forth across the street, were struck by automobiles and were very near to death? Help me to understand how dangerous my play may be in the street.

Do you know that brother and sometimes sister ride home on the back part or tire holder of someone's car? Caution them and other little children not to attempt this dangerous practice. You know they are very thoughtless, and by your continued advice it may be possible to save a child from painful injury.

When Daddy drives an auto he must take it for granted that each child we see near the curb may attempt to cross the street when least expected to do so, and therefore he must always drive slowly and be prepared to stop the car immediately. Help me advise other children not to play on the curbs.

Do you know that to cross the street in the middle of a block is against the law? We must walk to an intersection and cross at the corner.

Do you know that most of the automobile drivers have children of their own and are very careful, but the child-mind becomes panic stricken when in danger, and the panic of the child affects the driver, which results in an accident.

School closes today and I will have more time to play than I have had, but I will play in the parks, playgrounds, our yard or our friends' yards, and avoid playing in the streets. I will do this to help our city save the lives of our smallest citizens.

Stop, look both ways before crossing, and help others to avoid accidents. Streets are made for automobiles and horses, intersections or crossings are made for children to cross from one side of the street to the other.

Yours for the good of the children,

Catherine Wiswell,
Buddie McVicar,
Johnny J. Meany,
Billy Spieth,

MEAT IN COLD STORAGE DECREASES

Chicago, May 27.—In a statement issued today the Institute of American Meat Packers declared that a decrease of 56,448,520 pounds of meat and lard in cold storage as compared with May 1, 1919, prevailed on May 1 this year. The statement added that cold storage stocks in the United States on May 1 totalled 1,444,852,259 pounds, or sufficient to meet normal consumption for 27 days, if no other supply were available.

GUILTY OF LURING GIRL TO NEGRO RESORT

CHICAGO, May 27.—Dorsey Chambliss, former policeman, and Emma oss, both colored, were found guilty by a jury tonight on a charge of luring Miss Bertha Wiebeck, 17-year-old white girl of Pawnee Rock, Kan., to a negro resort. The punishment provided by the statute is from one to five years in the penitentiary. The case went to the jury at 4 o'clock this afternoon after an eleven days' trial.

Social Events

Gave Ice Cream Social.

An ice cream social was given on the lawn of Westminster church Thursday evening and was a very pleasant event. It was arranged for by members of the Sunday school classes taught by Miss Eleanor Moore and Mrs. J. T. Gunn.

Gave Farewell Party.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. George F. LaRue and their daughter, Miss Jean, gave a party in their honor at Maple Grove school Wednesday evening. They are to leave Saturday for Chicago and then will go to Colorado and coast states, expecting to remain in the west.

A musical program was given by Mrs. Jean Curtis, Mrs. Orville Coultas and Miss LaRue, and afterward excellent refreshments were served. Altogether it was a very pleasant event, attesting the esteem in which Mr. aid Mrs. LaRue and their daughter are held by their friends and neighbors in South Jacksonville.

Orleans Country Club Met Thursday.

The May meeting of the Orleans Woman's Country club was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Cleary northeast of the city. The attendance was unusually large and there were a number of guests present. It was a source of regret that Mrs. J. T. Holmes, who was to have presented a paper on Robert Service, was unable to be present because of illness in the family.

Mrs. W. H. Hinrichsen was heard in an interesting description of two unusual plays which she witnessed while in Nek York the past winter. Three little girls whose mothers are members of the club added much to the pleasure of the afternoon by some musical selections. These children were Frances Arnold, Marietta Jackson and Anna May Hulett. Several selections on the Victrola were also enjoyed by the company. There was a social hour following the program and during this time the hostess served delicious refreshments.

At the June meeting of the club which will be held with Mrs. Iven Cox on June 8, there will be a discussion by Mrs. W. T. Scott of the theme: "Is the Novel a Reflection of Life?" and Mrs. James Dobyns will give a book review.

Miss Clara Rook Entertained For Miss Frances Graubner

Miss Clara Rook entertained at a miscellaneous shower at her home, 1722 South Main street, in South Jacksonville, Thursday evening in honor of Miss Frances Graubner, who is soon to wed Albert Yording. Twenty-five of the intimate friends of Miss Graubner were present and the occasion proved one of great pleasure for all.

The evening was spent with games and music Miss Fern Heigh and Miss Monice Popejoy contributed several pleasing numbers. In the contests both prizes were won by Miss Catherine Cain.

At a late hour the hostess served delicious refreshments. In the cutting of the cake Miss Elizabeth Sloan received the dime, Mrs. E. H. Doolin the ring and Miss Frances Graubner the darning needle.

The Rook home was tastefully decorated for the occasion, the color scheme of pink and white being carried throughout.

Grace Epworth League Picnic at Park

The Epworth League of the Grace church has been holding a contest for the past few weeks, the league was divided into teams with Miss Maude Moxon, captain of the Whites, and William Mellon, captain of the Reds. The Whites won the contest and the Reds entertained them last evening at a picnic at Nichols Park. There were about forty present and everybody had a good supper and enjoyed the evening.

START CAMPAIGN AGAINST VILLA

EL PASO, May 27.—The defacto government of Mexico has begun its threatened campaign against Francisco Villa.

Advices received here today indicate that at least three commands have been sent into the mountains of Parral district to hunt down the bandit and that Villa had ahead of him some of the fastest dodging of his career if he is to escape the cordon of troops.

At last reports Villa was at El Valle.

Mrs. Samuel Evans and children have returned from a brief visit with the former's sister, Mrs. William Werries, near Bluffs.

"We entered the war most reluctantly. Our people were profoundly disinclined to take part in a European war and at last did so, only because they became convinced that it could not in truth be regarded only a European war, but must be regarded as a war in which civilization itself was involved and human rights of every kind as against a belligerent government. Moreover, when we entered the war we set forth very definitely the purposes for which we entered partly because we did not wish to be considered as merely taking part in a European contest. This joint resolution which I return does not seek to accomplish any of these objects, but in effect makes a complete surrender of the rights of the United States so far as the German government is concerned. A treaty of peace was signed at Versailles on the twenty-eighth of June, last, which did seek to accomplish the objects which we had declared to be in our hands, because all the great governments and peoples which united against Germany had adopted our declarations of purpose as their own and had in solemn form embodied them in communications to the German government preliminary to the armistice of Nov. 11, 1918. But the treaty as signed at Versailles has been rejected by the senate of the Unitd States, though it has been ratified by Germany. By that rejection and by its methods, we had in effect declared that we wish to draw apart and pursue objects and interests of our own, unhampered by any connections of interest or purpose with other governments and peoples.

"Notwithstanding the fact that upon our entrance into the war we professed to be seeking to assist in the maintenance of common interests nothing is said in this resolution about the freedom of navigation upon the seas, or the reduction of armaments, or the vindication of the rights of Belgium, or the rectification of wrongs done to France or the release of the Christian populations of the Ottoman empire from the intolerable subjugation which they have had for so many generations to endure, or the establishment of an independent Polish state, or the continued maintenance of any kind of understanding among the great powers of the world which would be calculated to prevent in the future such outrages as Germany attempted, and in part consummated. We have now in effect declared that we do not care to take any further risks or to assume any further responsibilities with regard to the freedom of nations or the sacredness of international obligations or the safety of independent peoples. Such a peace with Germany—a peace in which none of the essential interests which we had at heart when we entered the war is safeguarded—is, or ought to be, inconceivable is inconsistent with the dignity of the United States, with the rights and liberties of her citizens and with the very fundamental conditions of civilization.

"I hope that in these statements I have sufficiently set forth the reasons why I have felt it incumbent upon me to withhold my signature.

"WOODROW WILSON."

EXPERIMENTING ON NEW KIND OF FUEL

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Lignite or "brown" coal of Texas, North Dakota and other western states, probably will be used extensively as fuel if experiments soon to be made by the bureau of mines in an efort to drive off the moisture which makes it unserviceable proves successful.

Lignites constitute one-third of the fuel resources of the United States but have been little used because of the moisture in them, their tendency to disintergrate when dry and their liability to spontaneous combustion.

PHILADELPHIA, May 27.—Picked athletes from twenty-eight colleges will compete in the forty-fourth meeting of the Intercollegiate Athletic Association of America, which begins on Franklin field tomorrow afternon. There are more than 800 entries. The finals will be held on Saturday.

IT'S the man of farsight and vision that turns the conditions of today to his future advantage. The dollar of today looks mighty small in relation to its buying power and most of us are getting a sufficent number of those dollars to meet our current cost of living and few dollars over. But the days are not far off when that dollar will grow in purchasing power and when it does the dollars will not be so plentifully or generously circulated. The man who saves those little dollars now and puts them away in a safe Savings Bank will find they have grown tremendously in importance and usefulness when dollars are scarcer and when the spendthrifts and improvident have carelessly failed to conserve against future opportunty and need.

Now is the time to save—now while the dollars are easy to get. You cannot "eat your cake and have it too." So let's save the cake for a time when it will be most substantial and harder to procure.

Save those little 1920 dollars. They'll be mighty big dollars in 1925, or before.

NEW CONSTITUTION ADOPTED AT ILLINOIS

Student Body Adopt Constitution Reglating Student Activities—Makes Special Rules Governing Freshies — Will Have Pocket Bible for Under Classmen.

The student body of Illinois college adopted a new constitution at the regular weekly student meeting. There has been general dissatisfaction with the "Dorm Court" as it has existed in the past and the new move is for a body which will be responsible to the student body for their actions.

The new constitution provides for a council which is elected from the three upper classes with the majority in the senior class, the president of this council is also the "judge." The authority of the council is not limited to the freshmen class but includes the whole student body, the council also becomes the guardian of the $100 fund which the trustees provided for damage to college property; since this fund goes to the Athletic association at the end of the year minus the cost of damage to college property it is the aim of the students to keep it intact and force the students who damage property to pay for it themselves.

The student body has provided for suitable caps for the freshmen next year and the plans are to have the freshmen wear the caps but the celluloid collar and no necktie rule of past years is dropped, the aim is not to make a freshman feel humilitated but to mark him so that others may recognize him and help him in getting a start in college and in the city. The council will give the freshmen the opinions of the student body and then if there are some refractory students whom public opinion does not seem to affect the council will hold a session and make sure that the student is aware of the opinions of the student body.

These moves have come from the student body and are indicative of a general interest in the freshmen of next year, everything that the student body can do for them will be done. They will be provided with a pocket "Bible" published by the student body containing brief historical sketches of the college, organizations, and buildings, as well as the officers of the organizations, and the traditions of the college. The student body believes that im the freshmen are informed of what is expected of them by the student body and the college community they will be only too glad to cooperate and become members of it. The council will see that freshmen learn and abide by the traditions of the college, and will also watch out for student "pranks" and "jokes" and control them in such a way that responsibility for damage will be placed.

G. O. P. Convention Snap-Shots

The Story of 16 Nominations

By A. H. Vandenberg

TENTH CONVENTION

The tenth Republican National Convention invaded the Northwest and converged on Minneapolis June 7, 1892, with J. Sloat Fassett of New York as temporary chairman, and William McKinley as permanent chairman.

This was the first Convention ever to be addressed by a woman—the honor falling to Mrs. J. Ellen Foster of New York. Nor was this the limit of feminine activity. Three other women led a demonstration for Blaine which caused a tremendous sensation and which was only cheeked when four other women countered in leading a demonstration for Harrison.

Until a few days prior to the Convention, Harrison expected automatic re-nomination. Then some of his implacable foes got Blaine to consent once more to run. It is interesting to note that Platt of New York and Quay of Pennsylvania were largely responsible for this last Blaine effort; also interesting to note that these same two men were principally responsible, eight years later, for forcing Theodore Roosevelt into the Vice-Presidency.

Poor Blaine! A great man who could never succeed Presidentially at the right moment! When the Blaine movement showed obvious weakness, effort was undertaken to stampede for McKinley, who was in the chair; but he stalwartly refused sanction to the movement, just as he had done four years before.

The first roll call settled the decision: Harrison, 535; Blaine, 182; McKinley, 182; Thomas B. Reed of Maine, 4; Robert Lincoln, 1. Whitelaw Reid of New York was nominated for Vice-President by acclamation after Thomas B. Reed's friends said he would refuse the place. Strange always how little strife for second place, though three Vice-Presidents moved higher up in a span of 36 years!

The 1892 platform was void of novelty, except in the first formal advocacy of an extended postal rural free delivery; in a declaration for a Nicaraguan canal; and in pledging support to the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago.

BOILERS RECEIVED FOR CITY POWER PLANT

Used Equipment Purchased at Pittsburg, Kan.—Big Saving Made.

The two boilers which are to be installed at the new power plant have arrived in Jacksonville from Pittsburg, Kan., over the Burlington. The cars will be switched to the C. & A. and placed on the city's switch adjoining the plant site. This switch has not been completed but enough track has been laid to make it possible to unload the boilers there. They will be placed as nearly in position as possible and housed in a temporary way while the construction work is in progress.

These boilers were purchased for the city from the Joplin & Pittsburg Railroad company by Bernard Gause. At the time the city advertised for bids for new boilers several months ago the lowest submitted was $16,800, for two 300-horse power boilers, this price being f. o. b. cars at the point of shipment. About that time Mr. Gause had seen the boilers at Pittsburg advertised and he offered his services to the city council without cost for inspection and purchase of the boilers, the city simply to pay the expenses of the journey. The generous offer was accepted.

Mr. Gause went to Pittsburg, picked out two of the three boilers which the company was offering from its steam plant at a total cost of $4,500. The expense of removing the boilers, making certain replacements and loading them on cars will amount to approximately $1,500, so that the saving will be in the neighborhood of $10,000.

In addition to the boilers, Mr. Gause secured steam headers, grates, valves, turbine cleaners, steam gauges, armored hose and other equipment to the value of $800 to $1,000.

The company had three boilers for disposal and Mr. Gause bought two, with the understanding that he could take from the other and fit to those he purchased parts that needed replacement. At the time the boilers were purchased they were insured by the Hartford Boiler company, and in addition Mr. Gause gave the most careful inspection. As a result of the replacement process the boilers today are practically as good as new.

In order to give this replacement work proper attention and to see that the boilers were loaded in good form, Mr. Gause decided to stay in Pittsburg until the task was done. He employed the necessary men to tear down and load the boilers, and this work, of course, took considerable time. After the boilers were loaded and ready for shipment, a man who had come to Pittsburg to buy two boilers offered a profit on the city of Jacksonville purchase of $3,000. The city is certainly fortunate in making this purchase for the power plant. Yesterday Alderman Chapin and Mr. Gause went over the ground at the site of the plant and planned the way in which the boilers will be unloaded and temporarily housed.

CAR TRACK PAVING ABOUT COMPLETE

Railway Company Has Done Good Work On East State Street.

The work of paving and grouting between the tracks and adjacent spaces of the Jacksonville Railway & Light company on East State street is practically completed. The work was done by employes of the railway company under the supervision of George Wiseman, who has had long experience as an inspector of paving work.

The paving is complete clear to the point where the switch turns into the railway company's car house and the temporary crossing there must be taken out before the work can be finished. The Brown street crossing will be opened today so that traffic can once more proceed in a normal way. While the work has been in progress traffic from and to Brown street has been sent along the north side of East State street. With the completion of the Brown street crossing it will be possible to direct traffic in the usual way.

So far as possible trucks and wagons will be kept off the new paving until the city's part of the work has been done. Otherwise a certain amount of damage to the pavement is sure to be done, especially on the part outside the rails. The railway company construction workers under Mr. Wiseman's direction have taken all possible steps to protect the paving outside the rails. Cinders have been piled up against the brick and old ties have been laid upon the cinders and then spiked into the old pavement.

If the paving put down is damaged the loss will be on the city, for as soon as the job has been completed in a satisfactory way the work must be accepted by the city, which assumes the responsibility for the condition of the work.

The Yellow Acid That Destroys Your Teeth Is Under A Film

There is a slimy film on your teeth. It is there NOW. You can feel it with your tongue. It is made up of tartar and albumin and sticks too tight to the enamel to be removed with any tooth paste that is free enough from grit to be fit for every day use. Under this film is the breeding place of millions of yellow acid germs that soften the enamel and then eat through it.

ZYMOLINE tablets will remove that film. A harmless vegetable peptone compound you will like to use. Try one today, another in ten days. Watch your teeth in your mirror for results. A package of Zymoline tablets free this week with a 50 cent tube of

CONSERVATORY PUPILS IN GRADUATION RECITAL

Program of Great Excellence Presented at Northminster Church Thursday Night.

The Illinois College Conservatory Graduation Recital took place Thursday evening in Northminster church before a large and interested audience. Candidates for Teachers Certificates and Diplomas appeared on the program and represented the various departments of the Conservatory by a highly creditable and artistic performance.

The opening number was for the piano, the Mozart masterpiece, the Fantasy in C minor, which Miss Blanche Elizabeth Tripp played with excellent phrasing, tone and repose of manner. The Grieg accompaniment, played by Mr. Munger, added much to the beauty and interest of the Mozart composition.

In the Aria from the Hugenots Miss Louise Warton showed a voice of pleasant quality and flexibility, and sang with intelligence as well as distinct enunciation.

For her voice number Miss Tripp offered the beautiful Aria from "the Light of the World," by Sullivan. Her voice is of good quality and her interpretation was excellent.

Mrs. Fay Foreman, next on the program, with a Beethoven Sonata was unable to appear, so Miss Nora Young was fourth on the program. Her selection revealed a truly remarkable soprano voice. The charming Aria. from The Pearl of Brazil, was sung with delightful ease.

In the graceful "Spinning Wheel of Omphale," Miss Elsa Marie Foster brought fleet, well schooled fingers into play, and showed understanding of the music as well as good stage manner. Miss Isabelle Fox played the second piano part sympathetically and with pleasing tone.

Mr. Robert Shoemaker was unable to appear on account of illness.

Two movements from the lovely Ries Suite for Violin gave Miss Mary Emily Laird opportunity to show a musical temperament as well as good training and conscientious study.

Miss Lorine Deweese appeared to great advantage in the familiar Aria from Orfeo by Gluck, singing better than ever, with lovely tone and variety. She has evidently done close study.

Miss Ethyl Hughes' resonant voice was heard to advantage in the popular Madame Butterfly Aria "One Fine Day." She enunciates well, sings true to pitch and possesses a true soprano voice of pleasing quality and good range.

The great Aria from Oberon, chosen by Miss Ethel Carter as her Diploma number, revealed a voice of much power and good timbre. She sings easily and with genuine dramatic instinct.

Miss Eloise Capps played the scintillating "Rondino" of Vieuxtemps with captivating rhythm and brilliancy, and made it plain that she is a violinist of considerable technical equipment and true musical instinct. She also helped greatly to make interesing the "Caro Mio Ben," sung by Miss Ruth Melba Armstrong with such real artistry. Miss Armstrong's other numbers were interpreted in a finished manner, and her truly remarkable mezzo soprano voice compassed them easily. Her future will be watched with interest.

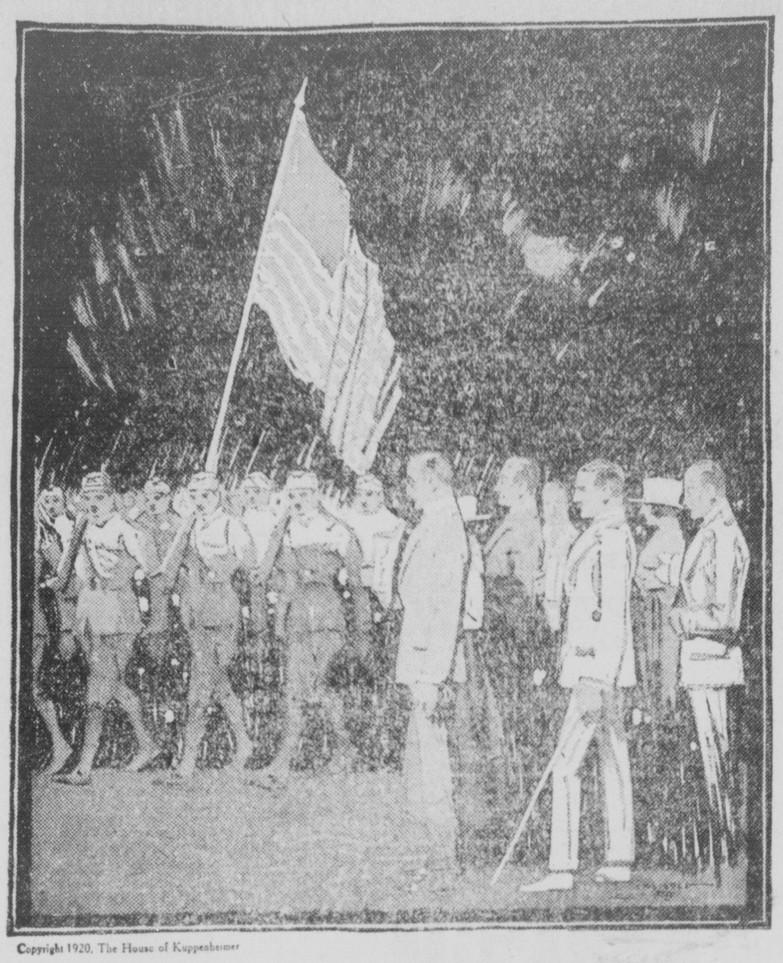

That Miss Edna Hackett is a favorite in Jacksonville was confirmed after her lovely singing of the famous Traviata Aria, which she gave with charming manner and lovely tone.

The program ended with the First Movement of the splendid D minor Concerto for piano by Rubinstein, played by Miss Helen Virginia Bullard with brilliancy and power as well as rare musical intelligence. Her surprising growth has been watched by many Jacksonville people with gratification.

The accompaniments of Misses Ellen McCurley and Martha Priest as well as Mr. Kritch were always sympathetic and satisfactory.

At the close of the program President Rammelkamp presented the Teacher's Certifivates to those entitled to them, excepting Mrs. Fay Foreman and Mr. Robert Shoemaker who were unable to be present.

The satisfaction of a radiant complexion

The satisfaction—the self confidence that results from knowing that you are well groomed cannot be expressed in words. But being well groomed is not altogether a matter of dress—perfect grooming also requires a sweet, clean complexion, radiant with health.

A clear, healthy complexion means a well nourished skin—one that is treated daily with a skin nutrient, for nature demands food, and just as we feed our bodies to produce vigor and health so too we must feed the skin.

You should demand more of your facial cream than mere cleansing properties. A cream should nourish while it cleanses in order to strengthen the tissues, to eliminate wrinkles and stimulate the glands which produce the rosy bloom of youth.

Every woman knows the value of cocoa butter as a skin food. Scientists agree on its remarkable nutritive qualities.

Coco-Bloom offers you pure cocoa butter combined with other ingredients of benefit to the skin in a delightful, velvety, luxurious facial cream.

You will like Coco-Bloom. In it you have one cream for cleansing, for massage, as a foundation for powder—in fact everything that affects the skin. It isn't sticky—it isn't greasy—it does not encourage the growth of hair.

Remember, Coco-Bloom is a cocoa butter cream, and it supplies exactly what is needed to make your skin healthy.

CORN PLANTING ABSORBING AFFAIR

All over the county, wherever the ground will permit, the song of the corn planter is being heard. Some fields have been planted and the corn is up. The field immediately west of Nichols park was planted before some of the heavy rains and the corn is generally above the ground, though the hard rain beat down the surface and it is a question if anything was gained by the earlier plnting. Experienced farmers say that even yet, with anything like a favorable season, there is a chance for a fairly good corn crop and the price bids fair to be attractive.

Of course such quality makes Valier's Enterprise Flour slightly higher priced in the sack, but it is well worth the difference. Its fineness and high gluten contents do away with needless, wasteful failures and give

THEN AND NOW A DIFFERENCE

The beautiful and attractive May Day exercises at the Woman's College Tuesday afternoon were praised unstintedly by everyone and rightly for the were well nigh perfect and wholly above criticism in any way or in any particular. They were all right. Now to one who has lived nearly four score years and whose early life was spent among the pious Methodist people of the early days the change seems well nigh unbelievable. Then a minister would have been ordered out of the pulpit if he didn't kneel in prayer and it was regarded as a breach of decorum for anyone in the audience not to do so. The writer well knew a brusque preacher who said in his prayer, "Oh, Lord, give —— and —— grace to kneel down" and they knelt.

In the eyes of a majority of westerners it was a detriment to a person to hail from New England and the term "blue bellied Yankee" was considered one of reproach. Mr. Thayer, once the head of the Female academy, thought it would be an honor to be a New Englander but he said he soon discovered the less he said about it the better for him.

In the minds of many a college education was sneered at. When Dr. Beecher remarked to a Jacksonville citizen that he had come here to help found a college the man remarked, "Better have a school of common sense." At one time when Rev. ePter Cartwright was addressing a congregation Sturtevant was present as the speaker knew and he said "I want them all to know I didn't spend any four years in college." Mr. Jaques, first head of the Woman's College told the writer that Mr. Cartwright had a grudge against him because he was an educated man and gave him less desirable appointments.

And then imagine one of the saints of old witnessing such a program as was given at the May day fete!!! Their hands would go up in holy horror. The handsome clothes were a sin. A good old Methodist minister had a wife who had good taste and one day she brought home a new bonnet.

"Do you really think it is handsome?" he asked.

"I think so," was the reply.

"Then the fire will get it," and suiting the act to the word he tossed the offending millinery into the fire, thinking as did Paul when he was persecuting the christians that he was doing God's service.

Once there was a yuong minister who was especially winning and successful but the presiding elder thought the young man too much of a fop and remonstrated with him about his fine clothes but the latter replied that he had no money, the clothes were given him and he had to wear them.

"I'll see to that then" was the reply and the old saint went about and secured a subscription with which to buy the young man a suit of home made jeans. He brought it to church and handed it to the offending young preacher and bade him hie right off to some neraby bushes and leave off those ungodly garments and appear more like a preacher. The young man did so and the good old presiding elder waited impatiently for his return, but, alas! those present declared he looked more stylish than ever.

These statements are facts and not at all isolated but were the way the good people of those days believed and acted. One saintly old lady rejoiced in the fact that she had worn one bonnet to church without change for twenty years and more than one woman carried her bonnet and even her shos in her hands till near the church and then put them on, removing them soon after leaving the church to save wear.

Then imagine any thing that savored of a dance. Shades of John Wesley and all the galaxy of early notables!!! It would have been flouted as coming directly from the bottomless pit, harmless as it might be.

But let it be distinctly remembered that this is no criticism on the good people of so long ago. They were the very salt of the earth and light of the world. They did what they believed to be right and did it for the glory of God and not for self aggrandizement. The present generation owes an immense debt of gratitude. Per contrary, the ministers of those days very largely used tobacco which is now forbidden M. E. ministerial candidates. They endured toil, hardship and privation for the good cau se and their deeds live after them.

MONROE CASE BEGINS IN CIRCUIT COURT

Defendant Charged with Attempt to Burglarize Alexander Bank —Zennie Ritchie Pleads Guilty to Manslaughter Charge — Docket Entries.

The trial of George Monroe, alias George Gerhart, for burglary was begun in the circuit Thursday. Monroe is the man who is charged with being implicated in the attempted robbery of the Alexander bank. He was arrested at Waverly about 6 o'clock on the morning following the Alexander incident. At his preliminary hearing some weeks ago bond was fixed in the sum of $2,000. Since that time he has been in jail.

The state's case is in the hands of the state's attorney, Carl Robinson, assisted by Walter W. Wright. Monroe is defended by J. Marshall Miller of Jacksonville and Messrs. Burke & Friedmeyer of Springfield.

The case is attracting more than the usual amount of interest. Yesterday Mr. Neal, assistant cashier of the Alexander State bank, and Miss Althea Hall, who is bookkeeper there, both identified Monroe as a man they had seen in front of the bank building several times on the day previous to the robbery.

It had been the claim of the defendant that he had not been in Alexander. At the time of his arrest he explained his presence in Waverly at the early morning hour by stating that he spent most of the night in a barn near Franklin that he found two colored men there also and that for fear that they would rob him he started to walk south on the track. When arrested he had $60 in currency in his possession.

According to the record the men who attempted to rob the Alexander bank stole James G. Strawn's automobile here, drove to Alexander and later abandoned the car on the road south of that town after a tire had blown out. The prosecution believes that Monroe was one of the three men who engaged in this undertaking.

One bit of evidence the state purposes to use against the defendant is that the shoes he wore when arrested fit exactly into some of the impressions about the car at the place where it was abandoned. He wore hobnailed shoes run over at the heel and with certain worn places in the soles, and according to the testimony of Sheriff Weatherford and his deputies the shoes that the accused man wore fit perfectly into the imprints on the ground.

The jury which is hearing the case includes the following: Fred Shelburn, P. S. Hodges, G. E. Dewees, C. L. Hankins, James McDonald, Harvey Ralson, Newton Angel, Lloyd Hamilton, S. P. Carter, E. J. Christopher, J. W. Baptist and J. W. McAlister.

Pleads Guilty to Manslaughter.

Zennie Ritchie appeared before Judge Burton Thursday morning and entered a plea of guilty to the charge of manslaughter and was sentenced by the court to serve for an indeterminate period at Chester penitentiary. By appointment of the court Attorney Walter W. Wright and D. J. Staley represented Ritchie. He had been indicted for murder as a result of killing Lucille King in an altercation in the kitchen at the Pacific hotel.

Docket Entries.

In the partition suit of Arthur M. Masters vs. Mary Masters Newcomb, et al., motion was entered by the complainant for order setting aside the order of default and also the decree for partition and the order confirming the report of commissioners. The motion also asks for leave to file an amended bill and the cause was heard and allowed. Amended bill was then filed and rule was entered requiring the defendant to answer the amended bill June 11.

In the divorce suit of Ruth May Johnson vs. David A. Johnson, the cause was heard by the court and decree entered on the ground of desertion. Complainant was given custody of her child.

In the matter of the estate of W. J. Wyatt, deceased, decree was entered approving the report of trustees and for the conveyance of land and distribution.

In the matter of the report of J. E. Osborne and harles Sulli- J. E. Osborne and Charles Sulli- appointed L. O. Vaught guardian ad litem for minor defendants, and the cause was referred to the master.

WHEN PINKS IN MOTHER'S GARDEN BLOOMED.

Memories.

When pinks in mother's garden bloomed,
And lent their fragrance to the air
Their banks of beauty around you formed,
In that old-time garden everywhere.

When pinks in mother's garden grew
Two lovers sought when low the sun,
The garden paths and their restful view,
When the toil and heat of the day was done.

When pinks in mother's garden last
Wafted their fragrance far and wide,
Those lovers dreamed of days long past,
As they walked in the garden satisfied.

When pinks in mother's garden died,
'Twas strangers trod there in sunny May,
For those dear old lovers side by side,
Hand clasping hand had gone away.

ATHLETICS FORFEIT GAME TO ELI TEAM.

BLOOD

Public Health Department

LOOD TELLS. What does the blood tell? Of one Flesh and LOOD created He all men equal. This is the first time that the nportance of the blood was brot to the attention of man. Beinning with Galen, 164 A. D. who first discovered that arteries ontained blood, and Harvey, 1640, discovered the circulation f the blood, up to the present time—the blood has been a fertile ield of research and investigation. Yet as a definite diagnostic actor but few things are known, notwithstanding the many skyocket claims of discovery you hear or read in the papers sporadlly.

E ADMIT THAT all children who are orn with pure blood in their veins are orn equal, but we declare with all the ower of our soul that the child robbed f the right to be well born is not only an nferior, but a burden instead of an asset o humanity.

EEP THIS IN MIND—A little blood, natomy, etc., would make this article etter understood.

INCE THE ORIGIN of man, PURE LOOD has remained stationary in its omposition. Only diseases and external nfluences have altered—not its compoition, but its relative constituents or uality. The blood is the liquid medium hru which oxygen and food are taken to he cells of the body and the waste matter removed. Then it becomes at once he most important fluid in the body, ence PURE BLOOD is all important to healthy MIND and BODY. In composion—plasma (the watery part), red corpuscles (erythrocytes), white corpuscles leucocytes), and blood plates—are the omponent parts.

E RED CELLS, the most important, in healthy adult male, should number 5 illion per cubic millimeter; in the fenale 4½ million — any great reduction eans a disease. The red corpuscle is omposed of two elements—stroma and he all important substance called hemoglobin. This hemoglobin is a very comlex substance. It contains the iron of he cell—it unites with oxygen in the ungs for purifying the blood. The red orpuscles live only a short while—every our millions of them fall to pieces. The hemoglobin is not lost but is taken up by other cells and forms yellowish brown and darker pigments (coloring matter) out of which the color of the skin, hair and eyes come. These coloring agents are spoken of as Endogenious pigments.

THERE IS TO BE FOUND another colored material in the body—breathed in thru the lungs—or taken thru the stomach—or skin—or fluids which impregnate the body with colored deposits, and these foreign bodies are called Exogenous pigments.

HERE IS WHERE many enthusiasts, no doubt, in trying to solve the real pigment that characterizes races, etc., make the fatal mistake of taking this class of material—because of the quantity and accessibility—as the secret of blood determination. Such a person usually arouses from his mental delving to find his discovery "like the toothache that leaves when the dentist appears."

THE LACK OF NORMAL pigment (usually hereditary) is shown in some people of very little coloring in eyes, skin or hair—as albinos. They suffer from the dazzling effects of light. Localized abseice of pigment in patches, presents a condition known as vitiligo (white spors —usually beginning on lips, face and hands).

A WORD ABOUT WHITE blood corpuscles (leucocytes). They protect the body from pathogenic (disease forming) bacteria; they aid in absorbing of fats, etc.; they take part in clotting and maintaining normal blood plasma. The blood plates become of interest only in disease.

(SUMMARY)

THE BLOOD when pure is as God made t.

IT DOES NOT afford many positive diagnostic facts.

IT DOES NOT give any evidence as to difference in color, races or individuals.

IT DOES NOT—in its pure state—show any difference in patriotism, loyalty or respect for the law.

IT DOES GIVE valuable aids in determining many diseases and positive diagnosis in a few.

IT DOES TELL that a great reduction in its corpuscles warns you of some abnormality.

IT DOES TELL that SYPHILIS is the only HEREDITARY DISEASE.

IT DOES TELL that the child born with the virus of Syphilis in its blood begins life everlastingly handicapped, and of the 5 millions of children of abnormal mentality, 65% of them made so by "sins of the fathers."

IT DOES TELL of the 70,000 blind children in the United States — 30,000 of whom are made so by "sns of the fathers."

IT DOES TELL of the 200,000 feeble minded, epileptic and imbecile children —60% are made so by "sins of the fathers."

IT DOES TELL that 45% of the criminals of the United States are mentally depraved on account of Syphilitic virus.

IT DOES TELL that there are 12,000,000 inhabitants of our country with blood poisoned by "sins of the fathers."

IT DOES TELL of the 12,000 divorces granted (3 every 5 minutes of a legal working day)—60% are due to unbearable dispositions due to "sins of the fathers."

IT DOES TELL that insanity — mental and physical degeneracy are increasing faster than the population.

IT DOES TELL that mental and physical weaklings should not be permitted to marry—and yet—only eight states are doing anything to prevent this evil. Last year our great state alone spent millions to improve the pedigree of our cattle and swine and NOT ONE CENT to improve the pedigree of the children.

IT DOES TELL, Mothers and Fathers, to see to it that the boy or girl shall not enter wedlock with one whose blood is not "Royal" (pure blood).

IT DOES TELL all of these and more.

"By His Blood are ye saved."

Daily Market Report

TREND OF CORN MARKET BULLISH

CHICAGO, May 27.—Disaster said to have been suffered by the Australian wheat crop as a result of drought had a notable bullish influence today on the corn market here. Closing prices of corn, however, were unsettled, varying from 1⅜ cents net decline to 1½ cents advance, with July $1.68⅛ to $1.68¼ and September $1.55⅞ to $1.56¼. Oats finished ⅝ cents to ½ cent down. In provisions the outcome ranged from 40 cents decline to a rise of 2½ cents.

Reports that the Australian wheat yield would not amount to enough for home consumption attracted special attention as apparently meaning the second successive virtual crop failure in Australia. The inference was drawn that except Argentina, the only real competitor of North America as an exporter of wheat, had thus been eliminated.

Previous to notice of this situation, the corn market had been weak owing to gossip that more corn was being offered by rural shippers than had been the case before for weeks. After the Australian news became current, however, the buying side of the corn market showed unusual snap until the last hour. Then heavy sales to realize profits made prices sag.

Ideal weather for growing tended to favor the bears in oats.

Provisions were neglected and most of the time ruled heavy.

TRADING IN STOCKS BELOW AVERAGE

NEW YORK, May 27.—Trading in stocks today fell considerably under the recent average, but the undertone of the market was steady to strong. Profit-taking and bear pressure materially reduced many gains at the close.

Sentiment among the professional element was favorably influenced by news of the arrival at Pacific coast points of several large consignments of gold from the Orient. This was accompanied by reports that a similar movement from South America may soon set in.

Movements of foreign exchange were rather confusing, rates to most of the middle and eastern European centers receding, while bills on London strengthened. The reaction in German and Austrian remittances tended to confirm the belief that the recent advance of marks and crowns was largely due to speculation.

Rumors that a large loan to Belgium is approaching the stage of completion lacked confirmation. Bankers identified with previous loans to that country intimated that credits expiring at the mid-year are likely to be renewed.

Call money was again available in large amounts at 6 per cent, but bids for time funds at 8½ and 8¾ per cent evoked little response.

Liberty bonds were distinctly strong, also French municipals, the general domestic list also tending higher. Total sales (par value) aggregated $16,500,000. Old U. S. bonds were unchanged.

NEWSPAPER ITEM MISLEADS HOUSE.

Omaha, Neb. — Announcement that a dozen strictly modern homes, rent free and tenantless, were at Fort Omaha, following reduction of the strength of the post recently brought scores of inquiries to the post from anxious house hunters. Post authorities referred all back to the newspaper which printed the item.

Inquirers had jumped at the news without reading through to the finish of the humorously intended article. There it was explained that the houses were officers' quarters.

WHITE HALL SCHOOL TEACHERS TO WED

Engagements of Miss Charlotte C. Shirley and Miss Clara P. Lindsey Announced Recently —Mrs. C. A. Crane Guest at Stevenson Home—Other News.

White Hall, May 25.—Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Vanderheyden on North Main street, Miss Rua Perry announced the engagement of Miss Charlotte C. Shirley and Charlie Leslie Hawk, the latter of Alton. The wedding is to take place June 30th. Miss Shirley is a resident of Kane, but has been teaching in the White Hall public schools for the past few years. The daisy color scheme was carried thruout in decorations and refreshments. At an appointed hour little Edward Vanderheyden, dressed as cupid, and driven by Miss Dorothy Galhuly, representing a daisy, entered and gave each guest a ribbon bearing the announcement on a daisy petal which had adorned the center of the table around a kewpie daisy. There were sixteen guests presnt, including Mrs. H. A. Shirly and Mrs. H. R. Varble of Kane, mother and sister of Miss Shirley. The party was very unique in every detail, and one of the interesting social events of the season.

Another wedding announcement of general interest and importance was sponsored by Miss Clara P. Lidsey, of the high school faculty, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Rafferty on East Bridgeport street, at which was announced the engagement of Miss Helen Beaty and Ralph F. Barnett. The date of the wedding was not revealed, though it is to take place in the near future. A color scheme of lavender and white was carried out in decorations and refreshments. Miss Beaty, whose home is in Nebraska, has been a very popular and efficient teacher in the White Hall school, and will be welcomed as a resident of this city.

Kitchen Shower at Picnic.

The faculty club of the White Hall public school, held a picnic Tuesday evening, a feature being a kitchen shower for Misses Helen Beaty and Charlotte Shirley, who received many useful gifts.

Another shower in honor of these prospective brides is scheduled to take place Thursday evening at Seminary creek.

Mrs. E. J. Hume will be hostess at a social function Wednesday evening at her home on West Bridgeport street.

With the departure next week of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Spencer for California for the summer will take away one of the city's most active society women. They will travel overland, camping on the route.

Mrs. E. K. Shirley will leave next week for Calgary, Alberta, to spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Roy Beavers, and son, Albert Shirley.

Decoration Day Program.

Decoration Day services will be held in Whiteside Park next Sunday afternoon, the oration being delivered by James H. Shaw of Bloomington, superintendent of the White Hall Chautauqua. A committee composed of members of the G. A. R. and the American Legion posts will conduct the decoration of soldier graves in the White Hall cemetery Saturday. The annual memorial sermon was delivered in the Princess theatre last Sunday afternoon at a special service. A compilation of the soldier graves for this entire northern section of Greene county has been prepared for use in connection with the exercises next Sunday, the most elaborate work of the kind yet attempted as a record of the soldier dead of a local community. It is being printed for general distribution, and shows the names of five veterans of the Revolutionary war. The job was carried out during the winter and spring under the auspices of the White Hall Soldiers' Monument Association by R. B. Pearce, the secretary.

Rev. Roy March baptized twenty-one converts at the Panther Creek Baptist church, seven miles west of Modesto, Sunday. The candidates were the result of a revival at this church during the month of March, conducted by Rev. March.

Mrs. Bird England left Monday for Lincoln, where her husband has taken employment with the pottery works that were moved from Roodhouse to Lincoln, he being connected with the institution at Roodhouse.

Mrs. John L. Freeman, daughter of the late Capt. J. M. Swales of Jacksonville, was in town last week with relatives. She has returned to Chicago, after spending several weeks in Jacksonville on account of the illness and death of her father.

Rev. Arthur F. Ewert delivered the address to the graduating class at Greenfield, Monday night and at Manchester last week.

Rev. W. R. Johnson was down from Jacksonville Monday to call on home folks. He will deliver the Decoration day address at Roodhouse next Sunday under the auspices of the American Legion.

Mrs. C. A. Crane of Newton, Mass., is a guest at the home of William Stevenson. She has been visiting in Jacksonville. Her husband was the noted Methodist divine who died eleven years ago while pastor of Plymouth temple at Boston. The Crane family is a notable one. It comprised five boys. The father was Rev. J. L. Crane, who was General Grant's chaplain. He resided at Springfield at the time Grant was president, and was made postmaster at Springfield, dying soon after serving his term. The oldest of the boys was Dr. William Crane of Jacksonville. C. A. came next, and he spent the first several years of his ministry at White Hall on the White Hall circuit, New Berdan, and as pastor of the White Hall church. The mother and only sister, Carrie, now Mrs. Dr. Tilton, of Boston, resided with C. A. at White Hall, while the youngest boy, Frank, conducted the Methodist pastorate at Roodhouse. Frank later became pastor of the People's church at Chicago, and is now located in New York City, famous as a syndicate writer. John is dead, and the location of James is not known. Mrs. C. A. Crane may be prevailed upon to remain over until Sunday, June 6th, to hear W. G. Ebey in the Methodist pulpit on that date in recognition of old times' sake. Ebey stops here on his way to New York City to attend a national convention of train dispatchers.

Commencement Gift

The graduation gift has a sentimental value out of all proportion to its cost. A five hundred dollar watch received later in life would never mean so much as a fifty dollar present at commencement.

In helping you choose a gift, we consider the pleasure it is to give as much as we do the profit we may make.

Gousseff, secretary of the Illinois Duroc Breeders' association will be present and address the meeting and present plans for organization. Robet R. Sanders will give a grain grading demonstration at the Farm Bureau office the forenoon of June 4. This office has been asked to provide five samples of wheat, mostly good with perhaps one or two samples showing bin burnt or heat damaged kernels. Two or three samples of corn, one good white, one good yellow, one white or yellow of inferior quality. Two or three samples of oats, one red, one white, perhaps one mixed. Mr. Sanders will bring with him the apparatus to be used in the demonstration. Altho he is perfectly willing to use that furnished by any elevator in the county. Be Rid of Painful Corns

"Gets-It" Makes Them Loosen Up So They Lift Off Painlessly.

There's no more pain after a few drops of "Gets-It" lands upon corn or callus and instantly dries.

In a day or two you lift the old misery-maker right off without even feeling it. That's the last of Mr. Corn and the last of your misery. Millions who have lost their corns the "Gets-It" way say it is the only common-sense way to get rid of the pests.

"Gets-It," the never-failing, guaranteed money-back corn remover costs but a trifle at any drug store. Mf'd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

WORKS HARD TO AVERT FLU EPIDEMIC

Government and City Health Officials Warn People to Keep Clean.

Stay Away from People with Coughs and Colds.

"Avoid crowds if you want to avoid influenza," says Association for Improving the Conditions of New York.

Keep your hands clean, drink plenty of fresh water; sleep with windows open; eat three uniform meals a day including a good breakfast.

People who have catarrh or frequent colds invite Influenza, declares a prominent Kentucky druggist.

The membrane of the throat and nose is raw, sore and tender, and makes a lovely abiding place for germs to thrive and multiply.

He advises an inexpensive home-made remedy that will bring relief in less than a day and will stop all discharge and sooth and heal the inflamed membrane in a few days.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Pour three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcine into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and snuff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat clean and healthy.

Nearly all druggists dispense Mentholized Arcine in vials containing exactly three-quarters of an ounce, which is all you need to make a pint of this healthful medicine.

PEORIA WOMAN HAD TO LIVE ON MILK

Gained Twenty-Five Pounds and Eats Anything Since Taking Tanlac.

"I have really gained twenty-five pounds since taking Tanlac and I am so happy all the time that my friends tell me I don't look like I had ever suffered any in all my life," said Mrs. Chas. Loser, R. F. D. No. 6, Peoria, Ill. recently.
"For ten years," she continued, "I had been in misery from my stomach, kidneys and nerves and during all that time never did a day pass that I was free from suffering. After eating I felt so nauseated and stuffy that I had to fight to keep breathing and I thought every breath would be my last. I had an awful burning in my chest and terrible pains and cramps in my stomach. As we had lots of milk on the farm I decided to live on milk and eat nothing else at all, but even that often disagreed with me. My kidneys were terribly disordered and I had such dreadful pains across my back I could hardly keep from screaming. I don't believe anything could have hurt worse. Why, I shudder to even think of the agony I suffered, and my back was so stiff that if I dared to stoop over the pain would nearly run me crazy. I was so nervous that I would go to bed and lie there for hours and it would be early morning before I could doze off to sleep; and when I got up my back was always hurting and I was completely worn out. I lost weight and strength and felt so miserable I saw no pleasure in life really.
"After I had tried everything I knew of and had almost given up in despair, one of my neighbors came to see me and told me she had been taking Tanlac and it had done her so much good that she wanted me to try it. Well, I began taking it and I was simply overjoyed when I started improving. My troubles began to leave me, the pains eased up and a calm came over me that I had not felt in years. And now it does not matter what I eat, because I can digest it without a particle of trouble. My kidneys were never in better condition and the pains in my back have all gone; my nerves are just as steady as they can be and I sleep like a child every night. I never felt better or happier in all my life, and as long as I live I will always be thankful to Tanlac."
Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover & Shreve and by the leading drug store in every town. —Adv.

TONIC'S MERITS DOUBLY PROVEN BY PEORIA CASE

"Trutona Will Do All That's Claimed for It," Mrs. Estey Declares

Peoria, Ill., May 27.—When two members of a family are aided by the same medicine it is surely positive proof that the preparation is one of unusual and remarkable merit. Such is the recent experience of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Estey, well known Peoria people, residing 1421 Main street. Mr. Estey says:
"I suffered from kidney trouble and rheumatism. Constipation also bothered me. Severe pains in my back and the back of my neck would ache so at night that I'd often have to get my wife to rub me before I could get any rest. I tried everything to get relief. Why, I even took fourteen bottles of one preparation, but none of them relieved me.
"But in spite of all this Trutona has relieved me of the back pains, and that alone is a lot. I haven't suffered any pains at all for the past few nights, and my kidneys are in better shape than they've been for some time now.
"My wife, who was troubled with severe pains in her back, also took Trutona, and she has gotten a great deal of relief through the medicine too. I believe Trutona will do all that is claimed for it, and I can recommend it to any one who is suffering as I did. I'm sure they'll get relief."
Trutona's healthful action reaches every portion of the body, and performs its work faithfully and efficiently. Trutona rebuilds diseased nerves and tissues, creates a healthful appetite and assists in the assimilation and digestion of the food.
Trutona is being introduced and explained in Jacksonville by Coover & Shreve and is sold in Franklin by the Wyle Drug Co., and in Waverly by the Wyle Drug Co.—Adv.

JORDAN

In reply to the question, "Where is the saturation point in automobile sales?" Mr. Edward S. Jordan, president of the Jordan Motor Car Company, of Cleveland, replied: "When everyone drives and no automobiles wear out."

"The tendency, however, is very definitely toward standardization of the industry. With production still far behind orders, every effort is being made to bring the number of cars of each individual factory up to the minimum of production. Labor conditions in general, lack of materials, and a tightening of the money market, has caused many plants to fall below quotas set for this time of the year.

"Consolidation of plants is a problem of the future. The need of today that confronts the automobile manufacturer is not the market saturation but rather, how to produce cars to cover the orders already on file. No doubt the time will come when the automobile industry will shake down to a few great controlling companies. This is seemingly a long way off, however.

"When the day comes when automobiles will be bought rather than sold, then the test period will have arrived to determine how many of the cars built today can survive without consolidating with other car manufacturers.

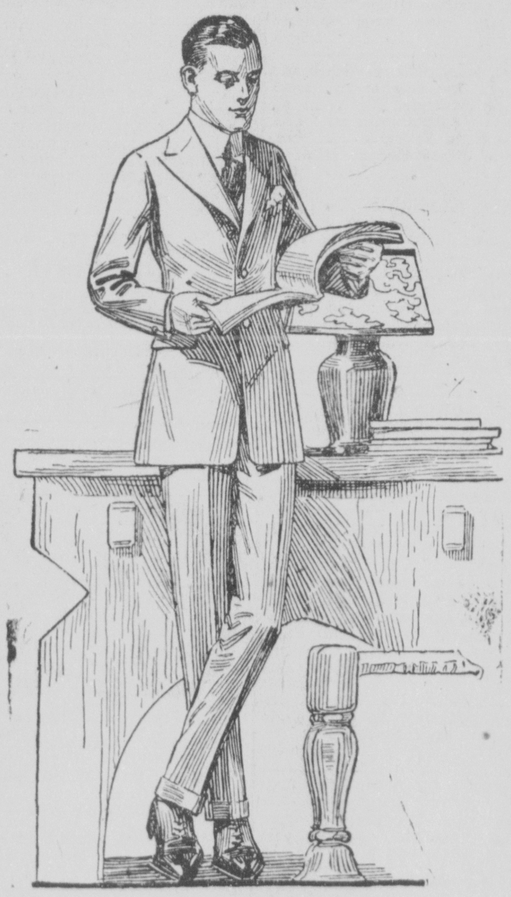

"Such a move would bring production up to a higher degree of efficiency and would minimize financial difficulties which are always so prevalent when supply exceeds demand."
